Mark Leathers was born in Benoni in 1984. He attended Nigel Primary School and thereafter the Drakensberg Boys Choir, St Alban's College, and Hoërskool Johan Jurgens. He attended Potchefstroom University for Christian Higher Education (PUKKE) and graduated with his undergraduate degree from UNISA in 2009 and his Master's degree in private law in 2015.

Mark served his articles of clerkship at Mc Naught & Co from July 2006. In 2010, he was admitted as an attorney, notary, and conveyancer and became a partner at Mc Naught & Co. In 2019, Mark took over as the director of the firm based at our Bluff office.

In addition to being an attorney, Mark is an experienced conveyancer and notary public. He assists conveyancing software providers in formulating documents and providing advisory services to various local councils on property law matters. Mark has a number of select multinational clients for whom he serves as legal counsel, handling their commercial litigation, structuring, contracts, and credit security requirements.

FIRM DESCRIPTION

Having over 40 years of experience in estate planning, Mc Naught & Co Incorporated can assist in structuring your estate planning to ensure the least amount of tax is paid and the lowest costs possible are incurred in administering a deceased estate.

Mc Naught & Co Incorporated specialises in various areas, including property transfers and land subdivisions, sectional title developments and conversions, and sale agreements and off-plan launches. We also handle notarial agreements, servitudes, and leases, as well as bank and private mortgage bonds. Our team provides comprehensive advice on business contracts and ante nuptial and civil union contracts. Additionally, we offer services related to wills and deceased estates, ensuring compliance with the National Credit Act and the Consumer Protection Act.
